Outer Banks Wedding Coverage

The natural beauty of the Outer Banks of North Carolina can add a fantastic tapestry of color and natural beauty to your wedding photos. The relaxed atmosphere there provides a unique setting for your destination wedding without the inconvenience and expense of international travel. Unlike most international destination weddings, the chances are good that more of your family and friends will be able to personally share in your wedding day memories.

Why should you choose Torre Photography to capture the fun, excitement, emotion and elegance of your wedding? Well, for starters, Martin Torre has over 40 years of experience photographing weddings and other social events. He has an instinctive sensitivity to the emotion of the wedding day and loves being with people on the happiest day of their life.

Why should you consider having Torre Photography travel from Virginia to the Outer Banks to photograph your wedding when there are other fine photographers available there? We encourage you to do some comparison shopping. You'll find that Torre Photography's prices are extremely competitive with local North Carolina photographers and that's even after factoring in a nominal fee for travel related expenses. Setting price issues aside, the quality of our photography should be reason enough to choose us to photograph your Outer Banks wedding.

How much of an investment will you make to have Torre Photography photograph your wedding on the Outer Banks? The following table outlines any additional fees you will incur over and above the cost of our standard packages.

Our travel fees are inclusive. They cover travel to and from NC, fuel, tolls, meals and in most instances, two nights of lodging.

Please keep in mind that these fees may include up to three hours of coverage of your rehearsal and/or rehearsal dinner. This is a $300.00 value!
